

WHAT WORKS FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

Evidence for
HIV/AIDS
Interventions

- ▶ Women and girls are uniquely affected by HIV and AIDS.
- ▶ Addressing HIV/AIDS in women and girls requires evidence of successful interventions.

That evidence is in one place ▶ www.whatworksforwomen.org

SATELLITE SESSION

Sunday, July 22

11:15-13:15 at Satellite Session Room 7

- A Reason to Celebrate: What Works for Women & Girls: Evidence for HIV/AIDS Interventions (SUSA23): *Join us to celebrate the launch of the updated, award-winning website What Works for Women & Girls: Evidence for HIV/AIDS Interventions. Come learn about what's new in what works for women and girls; how others are utilizing the resource and how it can be useful in your work.*
- Speakers:
 - Jill Gay, MA, J. Gay Associates, Lead Author of What Works for Women & Girls
 - Karen Hardee, PhD, Senior Fellow and Deputy Director, HPP, Futures Group; Co-author of What Works for Women & Girls
 - Melanie Croce-Galis, RN, MPH, Artemis Global Consulting, Co-author of What Works for Women & Girls
 - Wanjiru Mukoma, PhD, Director of Policy and Programs, LVCT
 - Dr. Robert Ferris (Discussant), Medical Officer, USAID Office of HIV/AIDS; Co-Chair, PEPFAR Adult Treatment Working Group
 - Nina Hasen (Discussant), PhD, Technical Advisor, Office of the U.S. Global AIDS Coordinator, HIV/AIDS Prevention Advisor, PEPFAR General Population Prevention Technical Working Group
 - Motoko Seko (Discussant), Specialist, Gender, Human Rights and Key Populations, Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria
 - Amelia Peltz (Moderator), MA, Gender Advisor, Office of HIV/AIDS, USAID

